EARLY VOTING INFORMATION for FRANKLIN COUNTY

Secretary of State Jennifer Brunner anticipates a voter turnout of at least 80% in Ohio on November 4. That's unprecedented, and it means that lines might be long on Election Day. So, vote early beginning Tuesday, September 30. That way, you can take Election Day off and commit to helping the Democratic get-out-the-vote effort!

☆ All voters must be registered by October 6, 2008, to be eligible to vote in the November 4th General Election.

Vote Early in Person

To vote an absentee voter ballot for the November 4, 2008 General Election in person before Election Day, go to Franklin County Veterans Memorial located at 300 West Broad Street in downtown Columbus.

- Weekday Hours: Monday through Friday from 8 AM until 7 PM beginning September 30 and ending November 3.
- Saturday Hours: From 8 AM until 5 PM on October 4, 11, 18, 25 and November 1.
- Sunday Hours: From 1 PM until 5 PM on October 5, 12, 19, 26, and November 2.

Vote Early by Mail

When you vote by mail, you won't ever have to wait in line. To vote by mail, send your application to the Board of Elections by noon on Saturday, Nov. 1. Your voted ballot must be received by 7:30 p.m. on Election Day or by Nov. 14 if postmarked by Monday, Nov. 3. Return postage of your voted ballot is prepaid by the County, so it won't even cost you a stamp!
